Bangalore,

3 September 12

My dear sir

My pay while acting as Chief Judge has to be specially settled by Government. I beg to suggest that it may be fixed at Rs 2750/- the amount that was paid to Mr T.R.A.Thamboo chettiar when he held the office of Chief Judge and Councillor together. It would hardly be a appropriate to give me less than Rs 2500 for the Chief Court work alone now. The combined pay of the two appointments is Rs 3800 and there would be a saving of more than a thousand rupees in what I suggest. I may add that an acting judge of the Chief Court has to be paid the full salary of the appointment under the M.S. Regulations.

Yours sincerely,

H. Manjunadayya

ORDERS.

NOTES.

Assistant Secretary, Finance.

The rules applicable in this case are Art. 67 (i) and 97 of the M.S.R. Strictly according to rules the proviso contained in Art.97 (iii) will limit the salary in the present case to Rs.2,000/- which is to be regarded as the pay of the appointment of Chief Judge when held by a local officer.

The Assistant Secretary, Finance, will please put up the orders fixing the pay of the Chief Judge under such circumstances to Rs.2,000. If the copy of the order in the Secretariat is not readily traceable, a copy of it should be obtained from the Comptroller's Office and placed in the file.

If, however, the Government are prepared to record the declaration under rule (i) Art.97 M.S.R., the salary in this case can be fixed at any figure between Rs.2,000 and Rs.2,900. In my respectful opinion, this is a case in which a declaration may be made and the total salary fixed at Rs.2,500.

I think that the declaration may be made & the amount fixed under H.H.'s orders — [illegible] 23 Dec 22

Before submitting the case to

to the Dewan, the Assistant Secretary will please collect all precedents and record a brief note ~~xxxxxxxxx~~ showing what was given in each case.

This case should be treated as Confidential and the file, when ready, submitted to the Dewan.

Submitted to His Highness.

The papers below relate to the salary payable to Mr. H.V.Nanjundayya for the combined duties of First Councillor and Officiating Chief Judge.

2. The Financial Secretary is of opinion that the Government may well record the declaration under rule (1) Article 97 of the Mysore Service Regulations, and that the salary in this case may be fixed at any figure between Rs. 2,000 and Rs.2,900. The Financial Secretary would choose Rs.2,500.

$2000 + \frac{1800}{2} = 2900.$

3. Mr. H.V.Nanjundayya suggests that the salary of Rs.2,750 may be adopted based on the precedent of the late Mr. Thumboo Chetty's case. The papers bearing on this precedent are put up.

4. The salary of the Chief Judge is understood to be fixed at Rs.2,500 per mensem if a European and Rs.2,000 per mensem if an Indian - vide page 174 of the Civil List. (But I don't see that the references are put up). As Officiating Chief Judge alone Mr. H.V.Nanjundayya would be entitled to draw Rs.2,000 per mensem (vide Article 67, Mysore Servic Regulations). As Councillor alone he draws Rs.1,800 per mensem.

(8

5. It seems to me that the declaration prescribed in rule (1), Article 97, may be recorded and that the salary may be fixed as His Highness may see fit at anything between Rs.2,000 and Rs.2,900. It may be taken at Rs.2,750 as being 50 Rs. less than $(1800+\frac{2000}{2}) = 2800$.
